LORD DUFFERIN RESIGNS.

DISGUSTED WITH THE ENGLISH POLICY.

BRITISH PRESTIGE INJURED IN INDIA—THE BOUNDARY NEGOTIATIONS.

LONDON, May 8.—The Morning Post asserts that Lord Dufferin has resigned his position as Viceroy of India in consequence of the disastrous effect upon British prestige in India of Mr. Gladstone's weak and timorous policy.

The Daily News says it is able to state that Earl Dufferin approves the settlement that has been made by England and Russia, as will appear from papers which are about to be laid on the table in Parliament. The News also says that the prospect of peace will not affect the budget. The money will be devoted to the work of increasing the navy, and any residue will be applied to the sinking fund.

Advices from Kabul state that the Amir of Afghanistan has informed his Ministers of his intention to strongly fortify the frontier when the delimitation has been perfected.

The conference between Earl Granville and Baron de Staal arranged to be held to-day, at the Foreign Office, for the purpose of formally opening the discussion on the delimitation of the Russo-Afghan boundary, was postponed, as Baron de Staal is awaiting communications on the subject from St. Petersburg. Negotiations continue on the demand of Earl Granville that Russia's assurances that her troops will not advance to Herat shall take the form of a treaty. It is reported that M. de Giers maintains that the simple expression of such an intention is a sufficient pledge. General Zeleny has been recalled from Tiflis to St. Petersburg to assist in the delimitation inquiry. M. de Giers has instructed General Komaroff to prepare a detailed report with charts, of the advance on Penjdeh, as a basis for reference to an arbitrator.

M. Lessar, the Russian Boundary Commissioner, had a conference with Earl Granville yesterday with respect to the delimitation of the Russo-Afghan frontier. An arbitrator has not yet been chosen.

Many members of the House of Commons think the recall of Sir Peter Lumsden forms part of the agreement between England and Russia, the telegram ordering him home having been sent the day after the receipt of Russia's reply. It is reported that the attitude of the British Government is partly due to the receipt of a report from General Sir Donald Stewart, the Commander-in-Chief of the Indian forces, that it would be imprudent to undertake an expedition to Herat until a railway has been completed to the Pishan Valley, which will take three years.

A dispatch from Bombay says a feeling of serenity prevails there at the prospect of the avoidance of war, and that there is no danger of the loyalty of the natives being impaired. War, the dispatch states, would retard the internal reforms introduced by Lord Ripon.

PARIS, May 7.—The République Française, commenting on special advices regarding the state of Afghanistan, reports that the Afghans, aggravated by the heavy taxation levied, will rebel, and that anarchy will reign in Herat, thus giving the Russians an opportunity to intervene on the pretext of establishing order in the name of the Amir. The present peace, the République thinks, is only a truce.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 7.—The following announcement appears in the evening newspapers: "In consequence of a divergence of views between the Cabinets of Russia and England on the interpretation of the March agreement, it has been decided to submit the question to the decision of an arbitrator. Meanwhile both Nations have agreed to resume the frontier negotiations, and the principal points of the frontier to be fixed by a previous understanding between the two cabinets, the demarcation of the frontier on the spot, and the placing of the frontier posts in accordance with the present positions until after the arrival of the joint commission, when, as fast as the direction of the frontier line is fixed, the frontier points will be occupied by the troops of both parties concerned. It will then be the duty of each to maintain order and security in its respective territory."

GLADSTONE EXPLAINING.

THE PENJENH AFFAIR MISUNDERSTOOD.

RUSSIAN AGGRESSION NOT WITHOUT CAUSE—LORD DUFFERIN AND THE AMER.

LONDON, May 7.—Mr. Gladstone, replying to questions in the House of Commons this afternoon, said that, although in the first telegram giving an account of it, he had described the Penjdeh affair as an act of unprovoked aggression, still he had never presumed that the facts in his possession were as made that statement were unquestionable. "As a matter of fact within twenty-four hours after news came containing important qualifications of that first received. He had no doubt, he said, that when the Earl of Dufferin, British Viceroy in India, at Lahore, after his return from the conference with the Amir at Rawalpindi, described the Russian attack as an act of unprovoked aggression, without any qualifications, the Viceroy's statement was warranted by the circumstances under which he spoke and the knowledge in his possession. But Russia has since denied that Colonel Alkhanoff had ordered the Turcomans under his command to make any attack. The report that Colonel Alkhanoff had issued such an order was made to England by Captain Yate and his party, who belonged to Sir Peter Lumsden's Boundary Commission, and who were in Penjdeh during the battle. But it had been ascertained since that neither Captain Yate nor any of his party were aware of any other foundation for the report than that of rumor.

Mr. Gladstone said that Lord Dufferin had arranged with Abdurrahman Khan, the Amir of Afghanistan, the bases upon which the British Government had proceeded in the frontier affair, and if further communications with the Amir upon the subject should become necessary, they would be made. Mr. Gladstone refused to say whether or not Lord Dufferin approved the course of the Government in the Afghan dispute.

Lord Edmund Fitzmaurice, Under Foreign Secretary, replying to Edward Gibson, Conservative Member for Dublin University, stated that General Ridgway, with Captain Yate and others, would remain in charge of the Afghan Boundary Commission, now that Sir Peter Lumsden is coming to London. "The instructions sent to Sir Peter Lumsden," Lord Edmund continued, "do not cancel his appointment. He has not been summoned to London to advise the Government on the frontier. The Boundary Commissioner's escort will remain with General Ridgway, who will carry on the work of the commission on the spot."

Earl Granville, Foreign Minister, in the House of Lords this afternoon, replying to a motion by the Opposition for a production by the Government of the papers in the Russian controversy, used the following language: "I do not believe that if England was going to war against Russia, we should wage it at a disadvantage and with every advantage in favor of Russia." He denied that the Government's military policy had been a course of failure, and denied also that Russia would go to Herat. The motion for the production of the papers was then withdrawn.

The Times, commenting on the attitude of the Conservatives toward the Government respecting the Afghan question, characterizes the conduct of the Tory leaders, as unwelcome. It says that Lord Randolph Churchill was not justified in proposing to refuse supplies to the Government. The approaching election will give the Conservatives ample opportunity to arrange the Government at the bar of public opinion, and the Conservative party will be much stronger if it abstains from crude and extravagant proposals. "The Government have mismanaged the Afghan business," the article concludes, "but that is no reason for Lord Randolph Churchill giving advice which shows that the Opposition is incapable of doing better."

MOVEMENTS AT THE DISPUTED FRONTIER.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 7.—Colonel Zakrebaki, who with Colonel Alkhanoff in the Russian movements preceding and including the battle of Penjdeh, has reached St. Petersburg with a full report of the Russian case, and has departed for Gatchina to deliver the report to the Czar. Colonel Bakrjewski says that the inhabitants of Penjdeh are well disposed toward the Russians.

The break in the Caspian Sea cable has been repaired. The Russian Government has decided to push the extension of the Russian railway to the Oxus River as rapidly as possible, with a view to have the construction completed to Merv by the spring of 1886.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 7.—Reviews from Sarika state that a small force of Russians with four guns now occupies Penjdeh. The same advices contain the statement that the Russian army has completely won over the Sarikians.

The telegraph line is now completed to a point 120 miles from Sarika.

There is an apparent lull in the Russian preparations for war.

The Afghan troops along the Pash Murghab, not having received any pay for a long time, are greatly demoralized.

RUMORS AFFECTING THE STOCK MARKET.

LONDON, May 7.—The stock market closed depressed owing chiefly to the news of the Russian occupation of Penjdeh. Less confidence prevailed in regard to a satisfactory settlement of the Anglo-Russian difficulty. "Bears" were less anxious to close accounts. Many rumors were in circulation. The rumor was about to resign. Prices suffered in consequence, although the rumors were not credited. Russians closed 5/16 lower and Egyptians 3/16 lower. In Paris the stock market opened with a general reaction and a general reaction and a general reaction.

steamer, the name of which is unknown to him, but which was detained in the harbor for some days, so that he had time to persuade a sailor to smuggle a letter to him. The letter was smuggled to him by a sailor, and he was able to send it to his friends in New York. The letter was dated, and that no despatches were worth the expense of kidnapping from the United States and taking to England by way of Niagara Falls and Halifax. Ireland is thought to have simply deserted his wife.

INDIANS JOINING THE HALF-BREDS.

ADVENTURES OF A SCOUTING PARTY—MALTRAITMENT OF WHITE WOMEN.

FIRST CREEK, N. W. T., via Humboldt, May 5.—A reconnoitering party of seventy men from Boulton's Cavalry and scouts went to Dumont's Crossing yesterday. They returned at 5 o'clock, and reported that they had reached a point one mile beyond Dumont's and within three miles of Batouche. A mile this side of Dumont's they started half a dozen rebels, evidently outposts, who were in a house, and who galloped away when they saw the troops in the distance. No shots were fired. Houses of half-breeds were deserted. General Middleton does not know yet where they may move. The weather is hot, but the rebels have been found camped. The General's reconnoitering party in person. The steamer from Swift Current arrived this morning and brought 120 members of the Midland Battalion, a Gatling gun and large quantities of ammunition and provisions. It is expected that a movement will be made day after tomorrow.

The regulars and east of Edmonton is full of hostile Indians. In fact all Indians west of Battleford are in war paint. The settlers have been killed by Big Bear's band over a week ago. Their wives and the wives of two missionaries are in the hands of the Indians. The rebels are now on the move. A little while ago a number of half-breeds are directing them. Major Steele was to have sent a detachment of his troops to the rebels, but nothing has been heard from him. There is a panic in the Eleanor district. Scores of half-breeds are now on the move.
